“GAME” A – ORGANIZATIONAL BEST PRACTICE

BRING & SHARE:

- Crisis Management Plan / How & When You Involve Who?
- Medical/Liability Form for State Officers or “Staff”
- Organizational Chart Defining Roles/Structure

FOCUS QUESTIONS:

- 1. What is the reasoning behind critical aspects of the plans or policies you have in place to handle an emergent or potentially emergent situation involving one or more student delegates at your conference?
- 2. What is the appropriate process and timeline for how and to whom information is shared within the organizational structure of your State Association?
- 3. When it is required or appropriate to notify the parent? The sending school district? Law enforcement? Other agencies? Who is or should be making such notifications?
- 4. Is there a distinction for staff members or others under the age of 18, such as Junior Counselors in a summer program, who may not have technically been sent by their school or district?
- 5. Have you ever had to implement such a plan, and – without getting into too much detail about the actual situation – what have you learned both during the implementation and afterward?
- 6. What liability issues does your association face with regard to the safety and welfare of students and staff members attending your conferences, and how do the documents you are sharing address them?

TRIBUTES:

“GAME” B – ADVISOR TRAINING & MAINTENANCE

BRING & SHARE:

- Program or Agenda from an Advisors’ Program
- Training Materials for Advisors
- Handbook or other Reference Materials for Advisors

FOCUS QUESTIONS:

1. What is your State Association actively doing to provide training for advisors during their first 3-5 years in that role?
2. What is your State Association actively doing to provide training for advisors once they become more experienced in that role?
3. What is your State Association actively doing to ensure that when an advisor retires from an active member school that his or her replacement is effectively transitioned and the school remains just as active?
4. What challenges are advisors facing in each of these professional stages, and what can active participation in your State Association give these advisors to meet and conquer such challenges?
5. How does your State Association encourage advisors at all experience levels to remain actively involved with Student Council in their schools and the programs of your State Association?
6. What kinds of things does your State Association offer to advisors at State Conferences so they perceive their role in attending them as more than just supervising their students?

“GAME” C – MEMBERSHIP ACQUISITION & MAINTENANCE

BRING & SHARE:

- Membership Development Plan or Related Documents
- Marketing Materials
- What Does Membership Get You?

FOCUS QUESTIONS:

1. What are the most significant challenges facing your State Association in terms of attaining steady or increasing membership?
2. What has your State Association done – and how – to convince school administrators and advisors of the value of membership?
3. In efforts to obtain new members, who is your State Association marketing to, who is conducting the marketing, and why?
4. What is your State Association doing to retain members, especially in their first 3-5 years of involvement?
5. What are some unique ways that your State Association has successfully marketed membership and programs?
6. Have you involved outside entities to assist in marketing or recruitment activities to increase membership? Who have you involved and to what level?
