10:00 AM Speaker Showcase—Session 2 (Repeated)

Heather Schultz: Heather encourages her audience to possess a winning attitude, set goals, and be focused and motivated. She challenges students to be a contributor, not a contaminator.

Fabian Ramirez: Fabian's speech will take attendees on a fun rollercoaster ride with twists and turns and ultimately leaving them wanting to ride again. His story about struggling with a bully through middle school resonates with so many teens.

Michael Cuestas: Michael will inspire your students by telling his personal story of poverty, growing up without a father, and homelessness. His choice to see himself as greater than those things is what leads Michael to be who he is today.

Tyson Dever: This presentation will challenge them to never give in to difficult situations and understand how their choices not only impact themselves but others as well. His fun, yet powerful presentation will be a challenging event that will motivate your students to reach higher and never give up.

Kyle Scheele: After working with thousands of teenagers over the last five years. I know exactly how to help them get those stories. Instead of using scare tactics to shock students into good behavior, I'd rather use the power of story to inspire them.

Shannon Pickard: Shannon will show everyone how to bust out of their comfort zone using powerful, cutting edge improv comedy techniques finding the confidence within, breaking down barriers, and laughing themselves to tears, as they do things they never thought possible.
